

Field Development Report

Weeks 39/40 - Sep 2024

The Field Developments Reports cover ongoing events in Northern Syria, providing a detailed account of incidents across the region. They encompass a broad range of incidents, such as truce violations, clashes, military strikes, bombardments, fires, and other significant events. These reports are published biweekly and include a weekly chronological breakdown of emerging incidents through a dashboard, ensuring stakeholders are well-informed about the dynamic situation on the ground.

Total: Since August 2023

As of the release of the field developments dashboard on August 2023 ,2, the Syrian regime and its Russian ally have committed 303 ceasefire violations. It is notable that despite Turkey and Russia reaching a ceasefire agreement in Idlib on March 2020 ,5, these areas continue to be targeted with heavy artillery and rocket fire.
