

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE REALITY OF WASH SECTOR

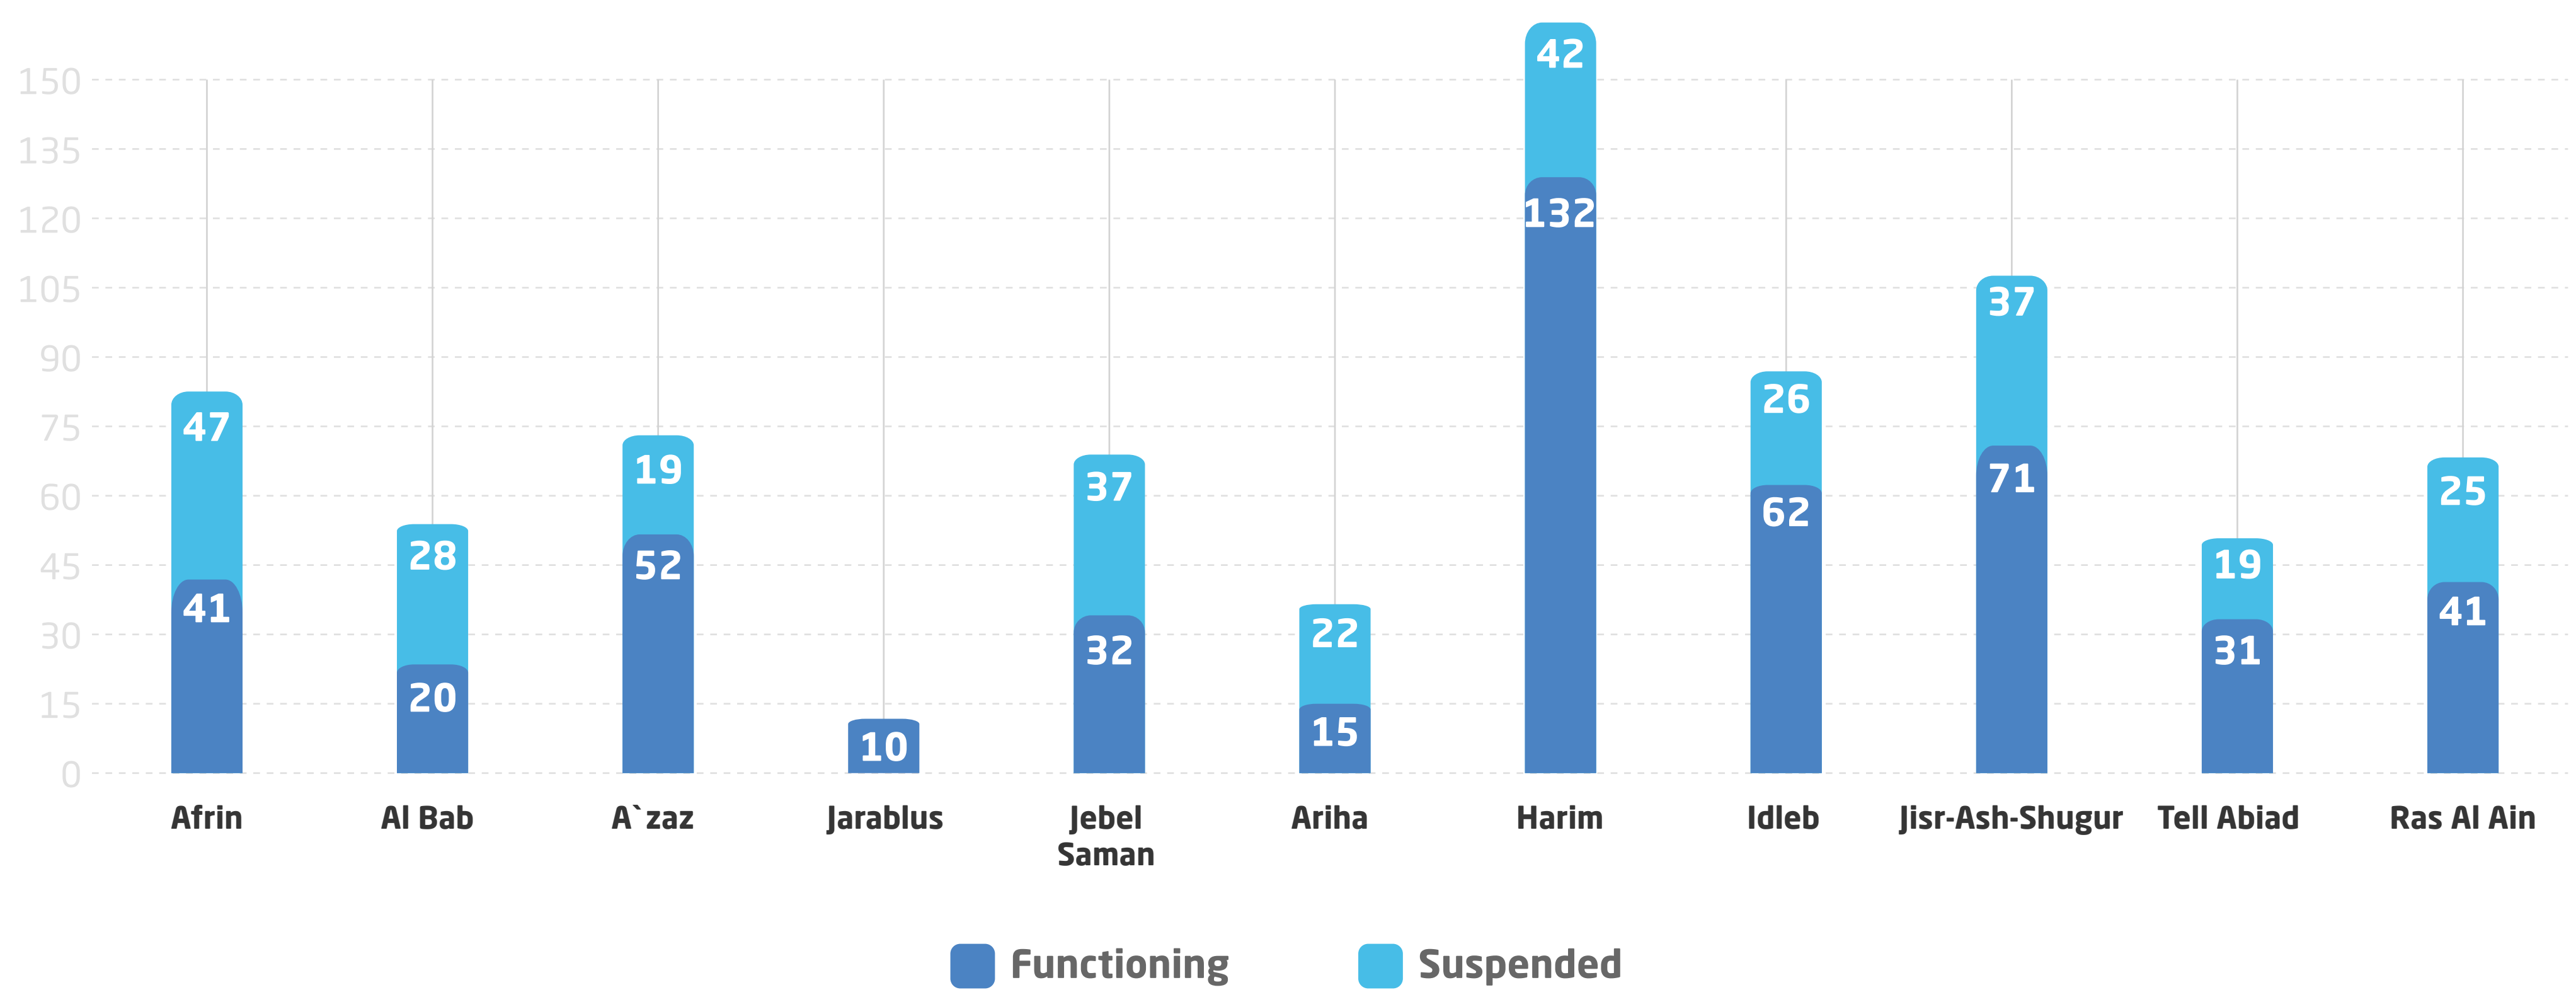

2024 Second QUARTER

01 Coverage of WASH

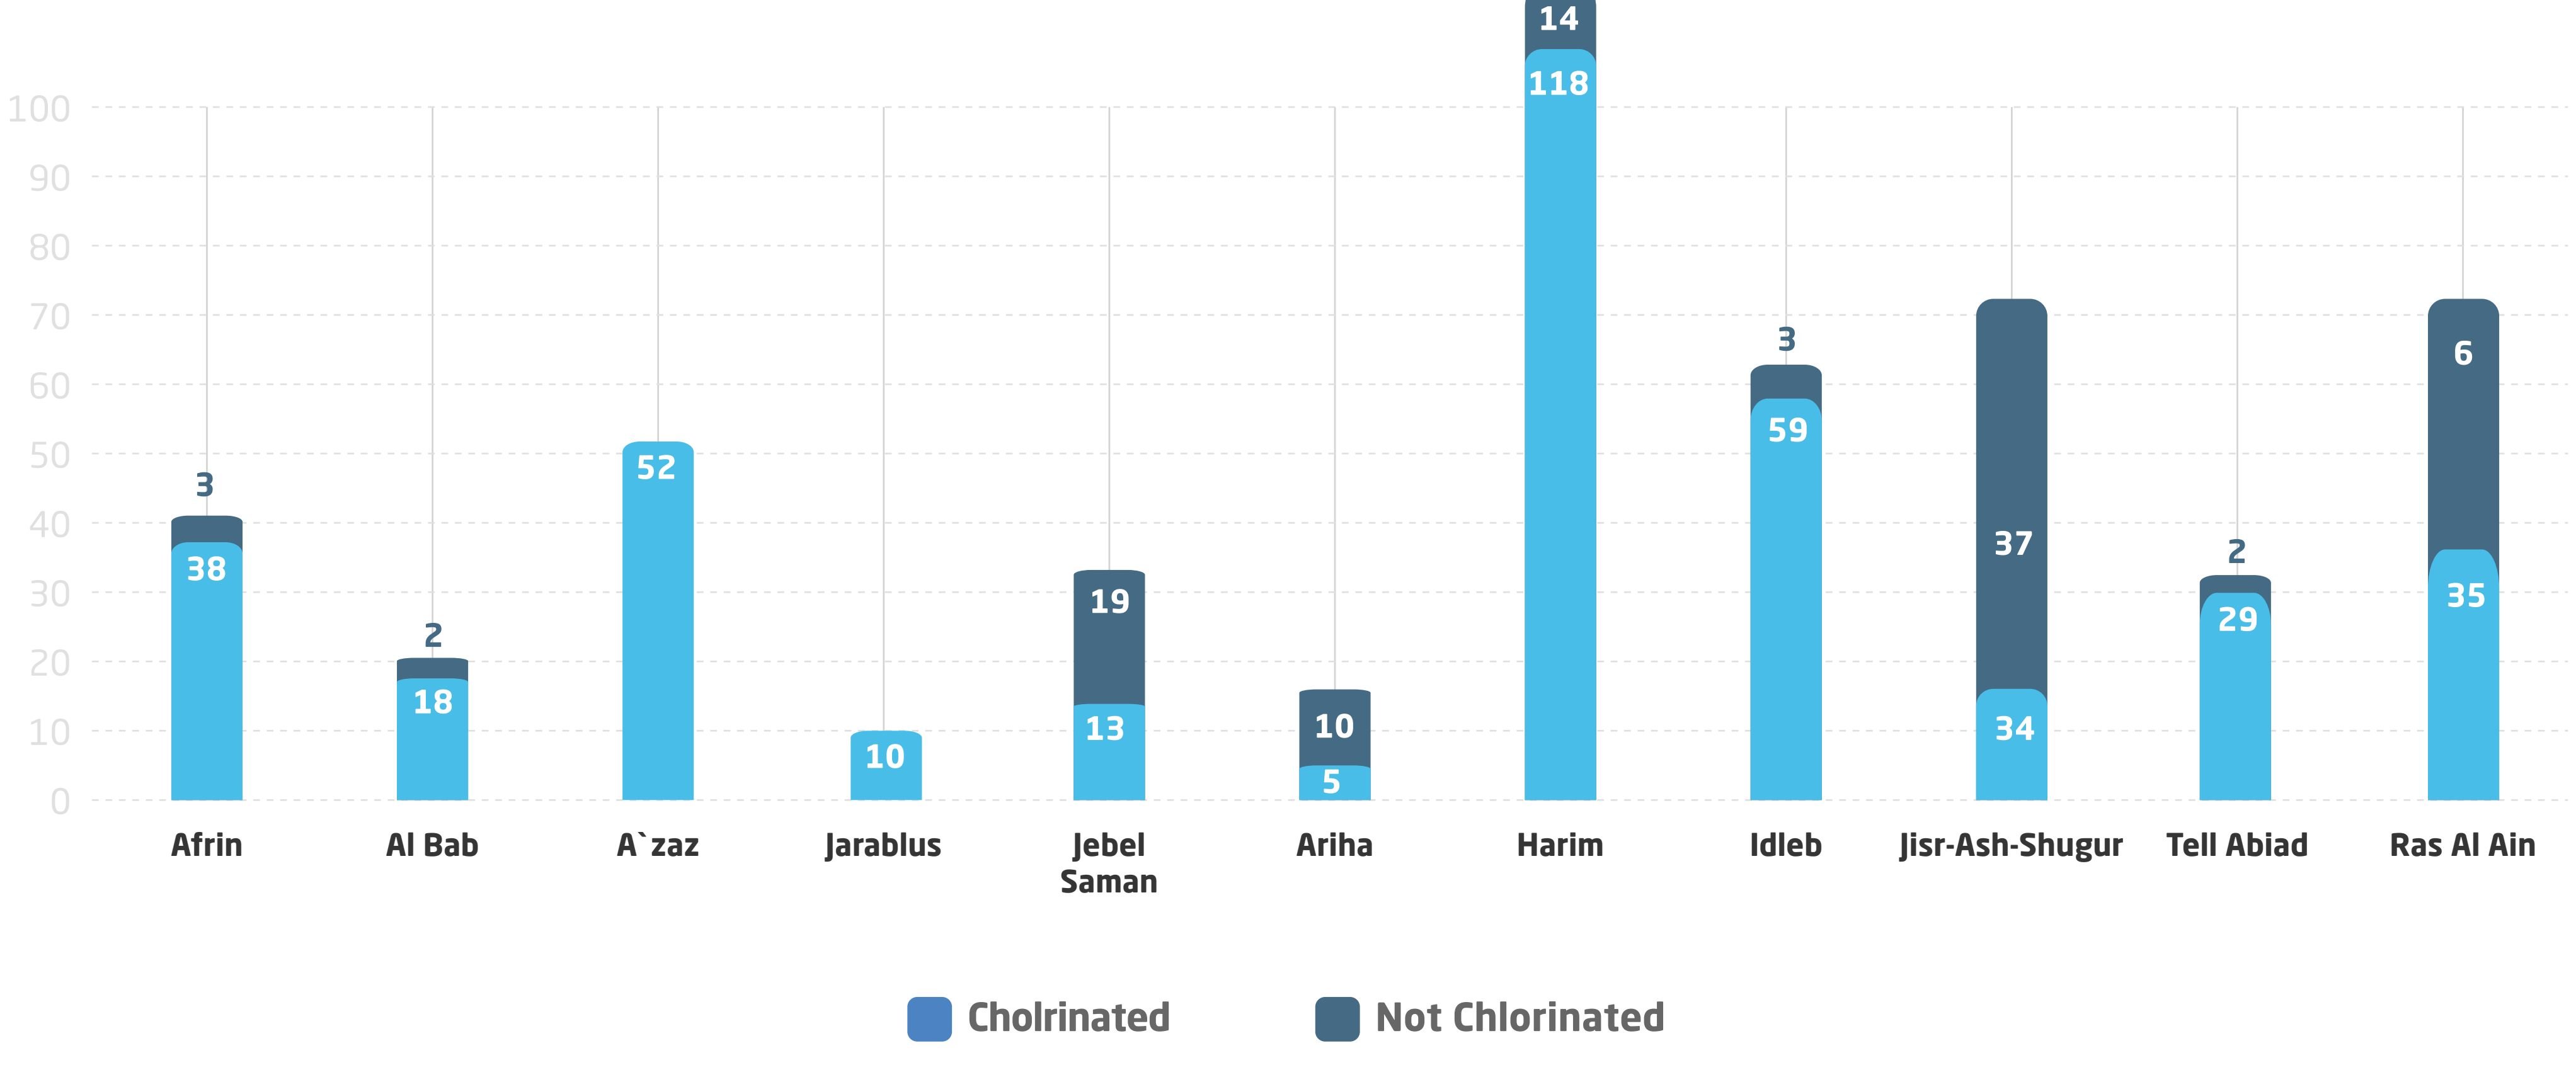

This report covers the areas of Northwestern Syria and RATA (Peace Spring), as shown in the map below.

2- The Following Chart Provides More Details on "Water Stations Functionality in the second quarter of 2024" Disaggregated by the District.

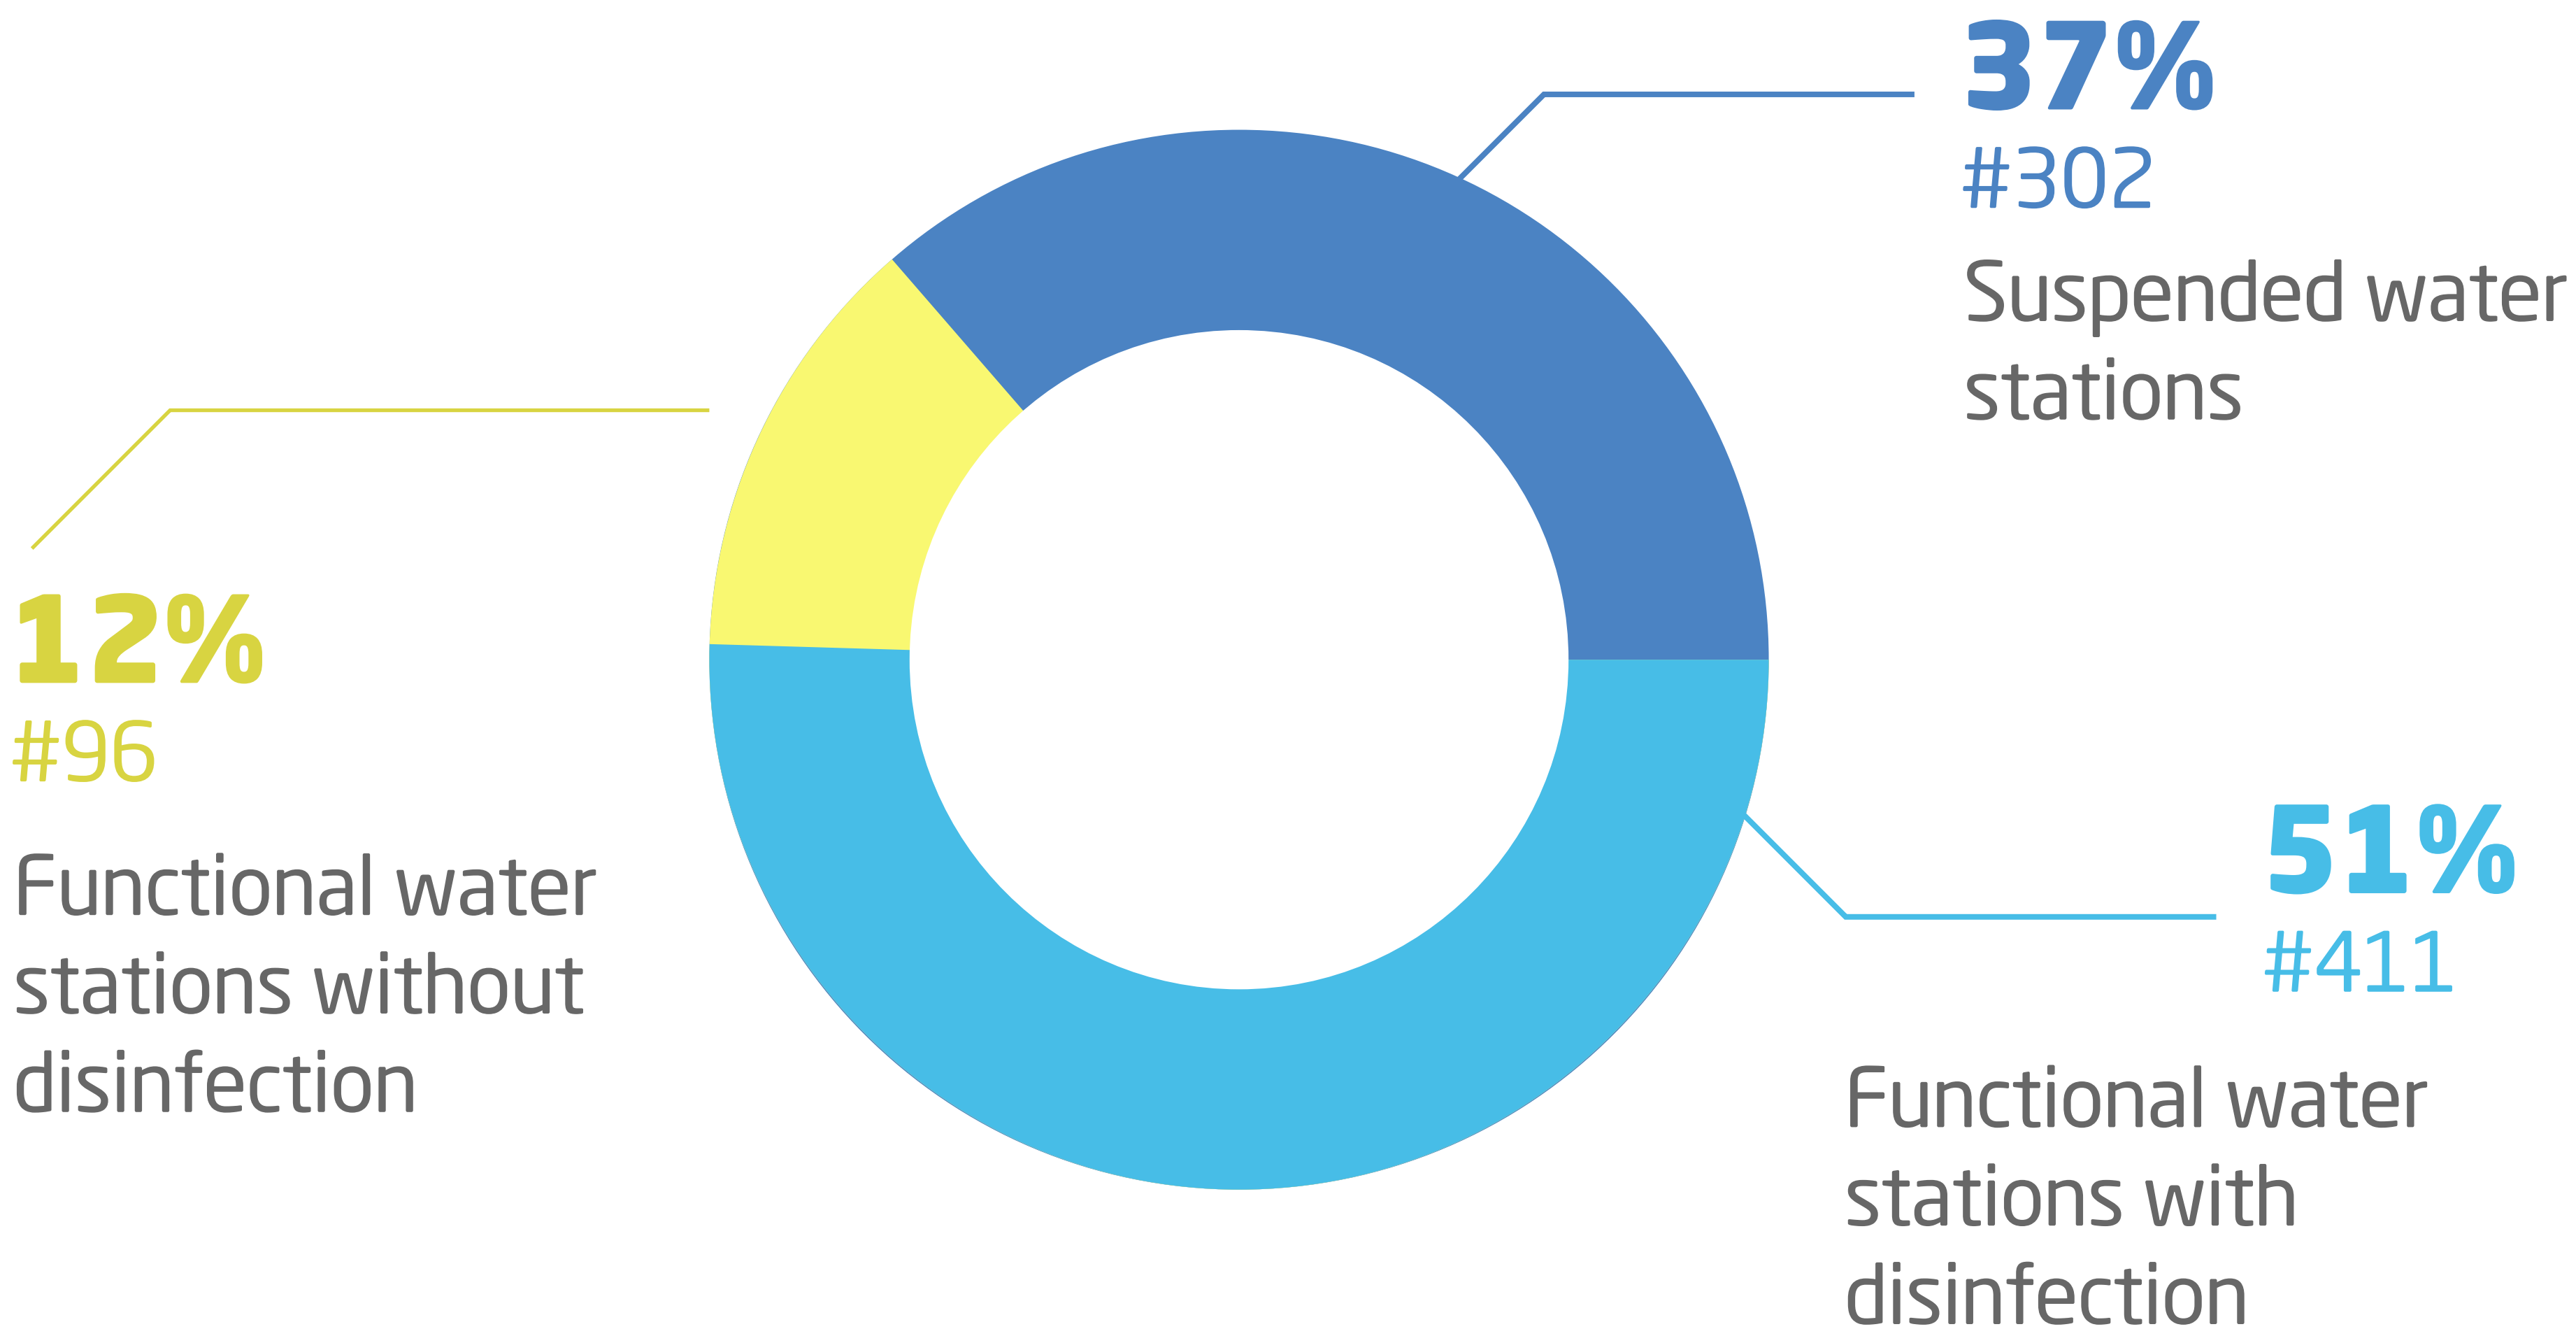

3- The Following Chart Provides More Details on "Chlorination Status in Functioning Water Stations in the second quarter of 2024" Disaggregated by the District.

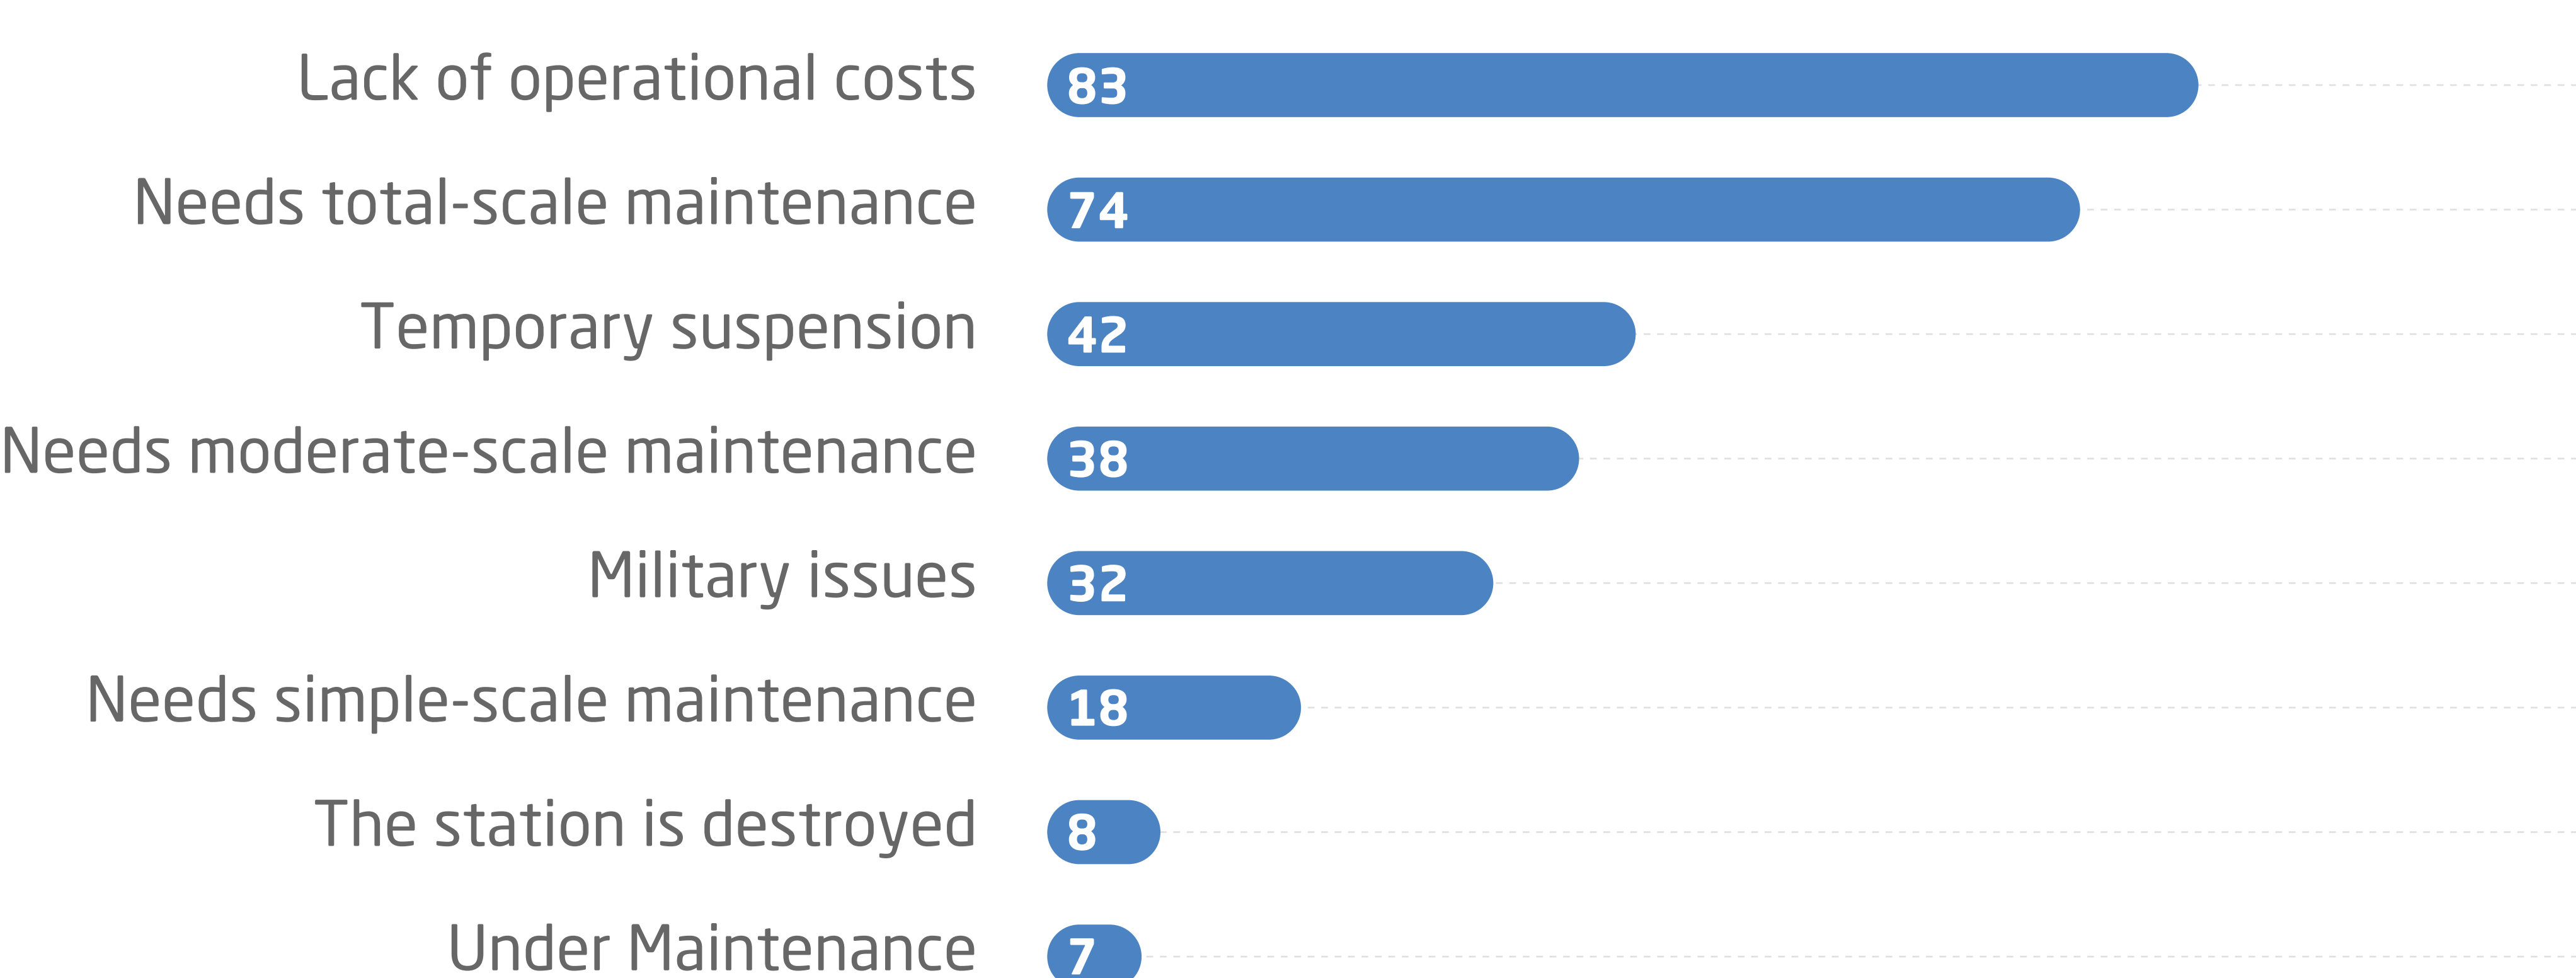

4- Water Stations Conclusion

There are 809 Water stations in this report's coverage area, as 507 (63 %) are functional while the rest 302 (37 %) are unfunctional.

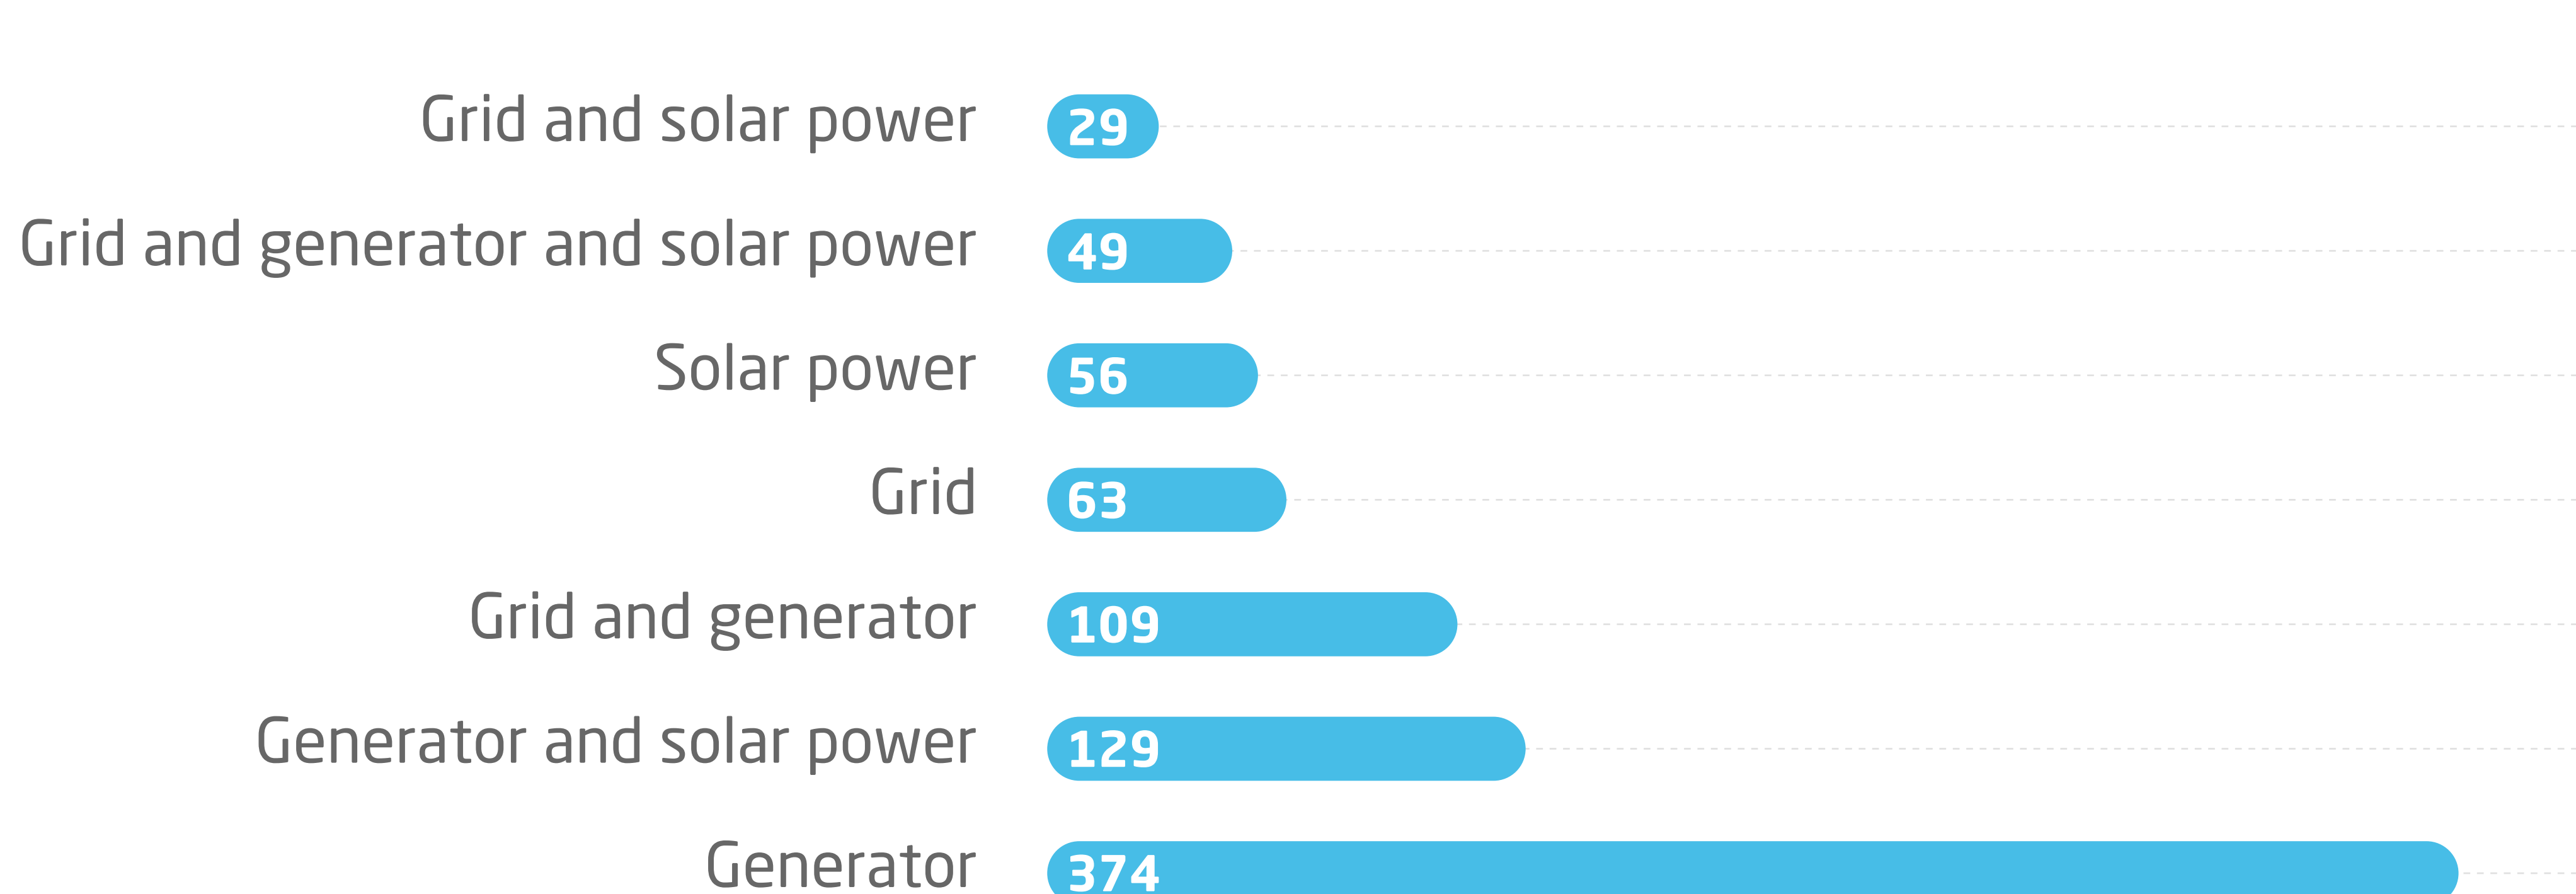

Within the 507 functional waters stations there are 411 (51%) of the water station are functional with disinfection and 96 (12%) of the water station are functional without disinfection.

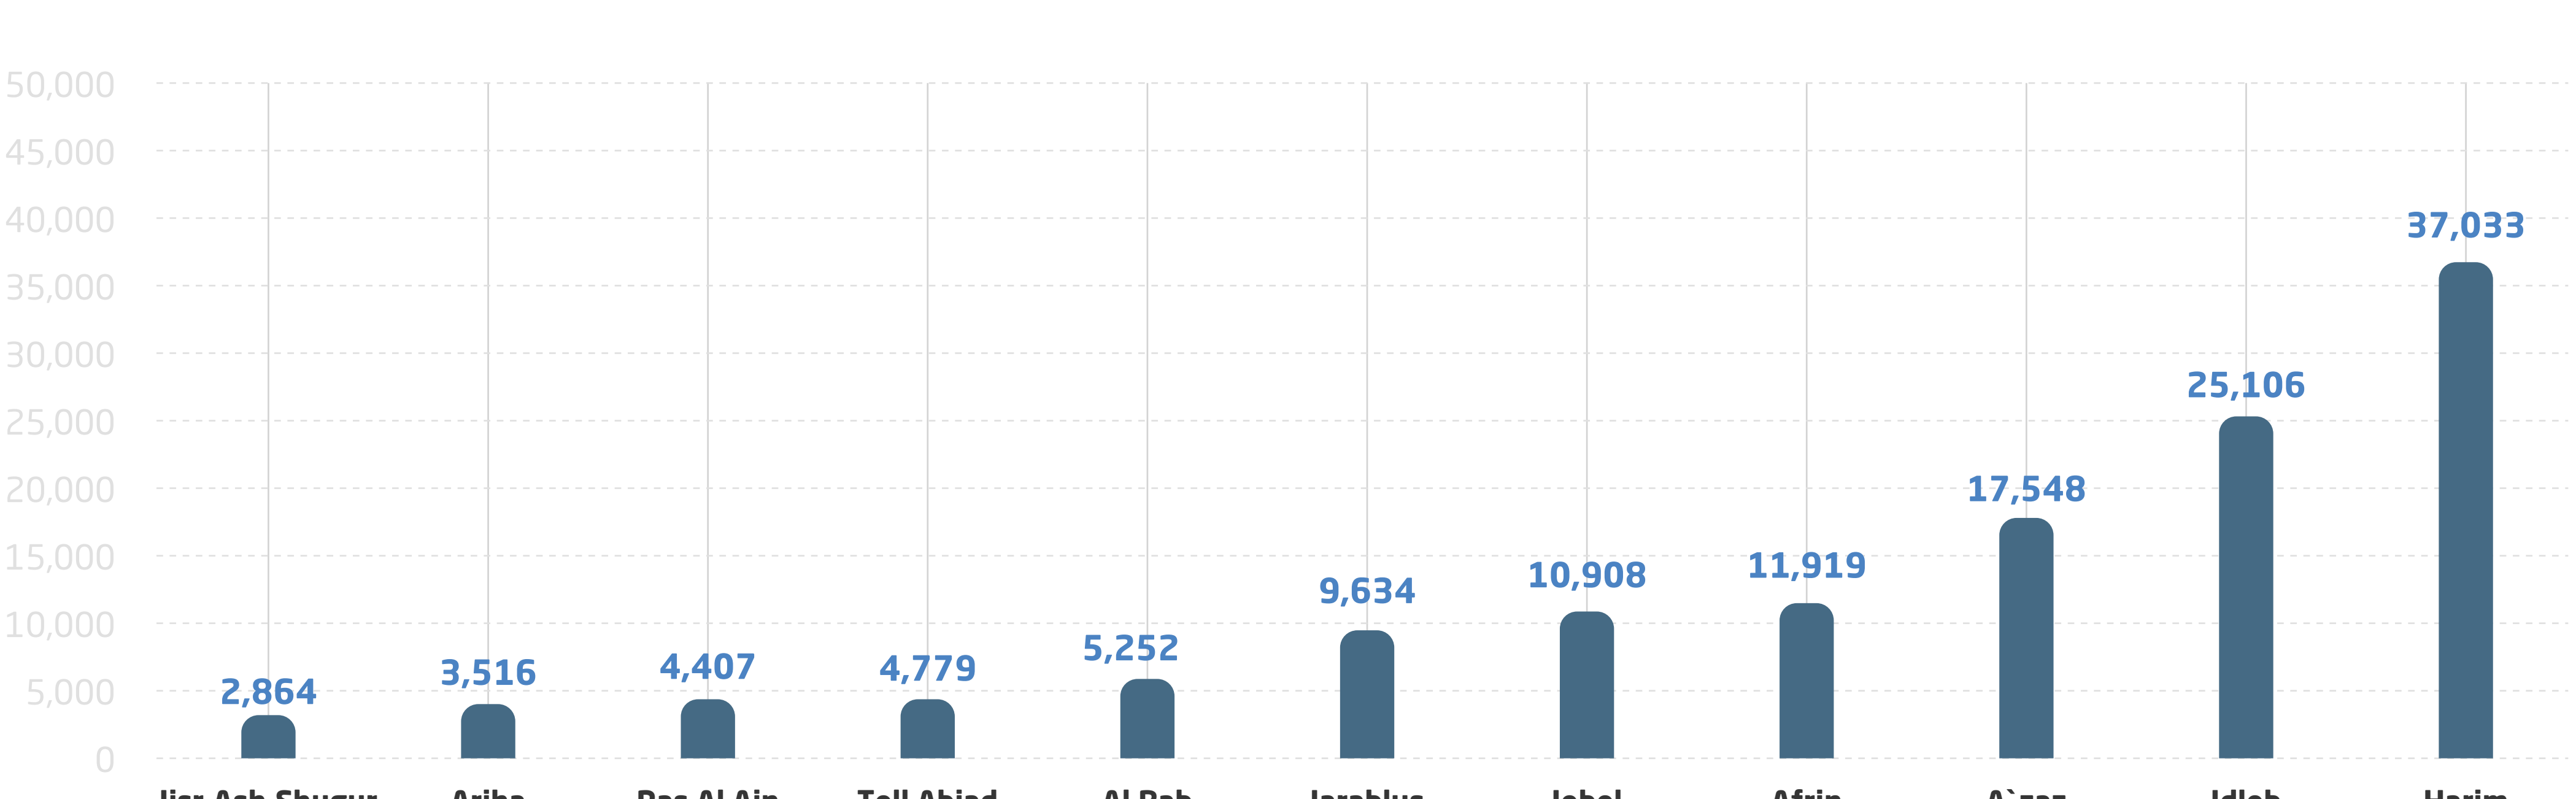

5- The Following Chart Provides More Details on "The causes of water stations suspension in the second quarter of 2024".

6- The Following Chart Provides More Details on "The source of power for water stations in the second quarter of 2024".

7- The Following Chart Provides Details on "The total number WBDs cases in the second quarter of 2024".

For more information, please visit the following links.

- Publishing of WASH Biweekly Bulletins in three languages which include the operation and disinfection situation of water stations in NS (1289 water stations).
- Updating interactive Report on the Functional Status of Water Stations.
- Updating and sharing of Interactive Reports on Water-borne Diseases and Water Stations' Status.
- Interactive report of technical information about water pumping stations (Technical specifications of the water station).
- Updating and sharing of Water Stations Database on a Bi-weekly basis
- Updating and sharing of Cholera outbreak update in NWS.

Water Resources Platform/WRP, a technical information management, coordination and stability, includes Syrian NGOs specialized in the WASH sector. The platform is hosted and supported by the Assistance Coordination Unit

To review previous versions of the reports